The 1st April 1889.

No. 1.—The following Postal Notice and Circular received from the Post-Master General, Madras, are published for general information and guidance, in supersession of those published with Notification No. 2075 of the 21st March 1889.

"POSTAL NOTICE.

"With effect from 1st April 1889, the Anché offices in the Mysore Province will be converted into Imperial Post offices, and from that date all Post offices in the Mysore Province will, in addition to the work connected with ordinary articles, registered articles and parcels, transact Money Order work and conduct business under the value-payable system.

"2. All Post offices (with the exception of small Branch offices at unimportant villages) will also insure articles for transit through the Post, transact Savings Bank work and receive telegrams for transmission to the nearest Telegraph offices.

"3. Money Orders will be paid by the employés of the Department at the homes of the payees.

"4. In place of the present system of pre-payment in cash, the use of the Imperial Post cards, Postage stamps, and embossed envelopes will be introduced with effect from the date above mentioned. Ordinary articles and parcels may be posted pre-paid or un-paid at the option of the sender.

"5. Postage on parcels, the insurance fee on insured parcels, and the commission on Money Orders must be paid in cash.

"6. The rates of postage and of other fees and charges and all other information of a general nature can be ascertained by a reference to the Notice Board that will be exposed at every Post office, or from the Postal Abstracts and Indian Postal Guide which will be on sale at all the principal Post offices in the State."

"CIRCULAR.

"From the 1st April 1889, all official articles posted by officials of the Mysore Government in Imperial Post offices within the State and intended for delivery within the State will be transmitted free charge.

"2. On official correspondence which will travel entirely, or for a portion of its transit, through British Territory, postage will be paid at the usual official rates; but the Circulars of this office noted in the margin, showing the designations of officers of the Mysore State who are authorized to use Service Postage stamps will remain in force for the present.

65 of 3rd July 1888 AND 101 of 17th August 1888 } Attached.

"3. An official article posted under Rule 1 above will be superscribed "On Mysore Government Service" "ಮೈಸೂರು ಸರ್ಕಾರ" and will bear the full signature and official designation of the officer who sends the article, or of the Head Clerk, or other official of his office to whom the duty of despatching is entrusted. The provisions of Clause 375 of the Indian Postal Guide will be applicable to all articles posted under these conditions, except of course that they are not liable to any charge on account of postage.

"4. Any incompleteness in the superscription on an article or in the name or designation of the despatching officer will render it liable to be treated as an ordinary unpaid article. During the first few months, however, defects of this nature should be pointed out to the despatching officer by the office of posting; and articles should not be taxed until the rule is thoroughly understood."
